

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

Dear Dr. Riviere:

We are pleased that you selected our firm to assist in representing your interests in connection with the antidumping and countervailing duty cases pending in the United States. This letter will confirm the basis upon which you have retained our firm.

We will send you statements, approximately every month, for our legal fees and expenses. Our fees will be based upon our usual time charges for professional, paraprofessional and other direct hours devoted to our work on your behalf.

In addition to the amounts to be paid us for our services, you will reimburse Arnold & Porter for out-of-pocket expenses incurred on your behalf, including travel expenditures and living expense when out of town, taxi fares, long-distance tolls, photocopies, and the like.

If the foregoing meets with your understanding, would you please sign the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to us for our files.
